COMMUNITY PROFILE

Black Diamond is a rural community treasured for its deep history, beautiful scenery and friendly Residents. The City of Black Diamond is located between Maple Valley and Enumclaw.

The Green River region lies about 30 miles southeast of Seattle on a flat bench of glacial gravel. Its perimeters are older sedimentary mountains to the west and north, with the Cedar River forming a snaking northern boundary; towering Cascade foothills to the east; and the lush Enumclaw floodplain to the south. Black Diamond lies in the heart of the Green River region.

Parks & Recreation

BLACK DIAMOND

RECREATION: Within the city limits of Black Diamond recreation facilities are limited to a three-acre park adjacent to the Black Diamond Elementary School and the Community Gym. The park has two paved tennis courts and a basketball court.

The Black Diamond Elementary School has a playfield and is the site of Little League and soccer games for the community.

Within the Black Diamond region there are a number of county and state facilities, which undoubtedly serve some of the Black Diamond residents recreational needs. Included in these are the following: Wilderness Lake, about 7 miles north of the city, which has a large county park and a Game Department boat launching ramp; to the northeast. Lake Sawyer has public boat ramps, is heavily used for water skiing, and offers year round fishing; to the east of the city is the Green River Gorge, about four miles from the center of town; to southwest is Flaming Geyser Park and the Green River Conservancy area.
